Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,

The 22nd December 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was in Council for the first time on the 22nd December 1852.

ACT No. — OF 1852.

An Act for the apprehension of Persons for offences committed out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, and for delivering them up to Justice, and to provide for the execution of warrants in places out of the jurisdiction of the authorities issuing them.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the apprehension and delivery up to justice for offences committed in any part of the dominions of Her Majesty, or for heinous offences committed in the territories of any Foreign Prince or State, of persons who may take refuge in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, and to enable the Government of any Presidency or place within such last mentioned territories to carry out treaties entered into by or on behalf of Her Majesty, or the East India Company with any Foreign Prince or State; It is enacted as follows:—

I. If requisition be made by the person or persons for the time being administering the executive Government of any part of the dominions of Her Majesty, to the Government of any part of the British territories in India to deliver up to justice any person accused of having committed any offence in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, subject to the Government making the requisition, against the laws thereof, and who shall be, or shall be supposed to be, in any part of the British territories in India, subject to the Government to which the requisition shall be made, or if a similar requisition be made by any Foreign Prince or State, or any Minister or Officer thereof in respect of a person accused of having committed a heinous offence in any part of the territories of such Foreign Prince or State, it shall be lawful for the Government to which the requisition shall be made to issue an order in writing for the apprehension of the person accused.

II. The order shall be signed by one of the Secretaries to the Government, it shall be directed to all Magistrates and Justices of the Peace of the Presidency or place under the control of such Government, it shall signify that the requisition has been made, shall state the nature of the offence charged, the name or other designation, if the name be not known, of the person accused, and any other description of him that may be thought necessary, and it shall require the Magistrates and Justices to whom it shall be directed to aid in the apprehension of the person accused, and to proceed in pursuance of this Act.

III. Upon the production of the order to any such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, and also upon the production of a warrant issued by an Officer having competent authority in that behalf in the territories in which the offence shall be alleged to have been committed, for the arrest of the person accused for the same offence, and upon proof that such warrant or document would in such last mentioned territories, justify the arrest or holding to bail of the person accused for the offence charged, such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall examine into the truth of the charge, and for that purpose shall have the same powers as if the offence had been committed within his jurisdiction.

IV. If the evidence adduced shall in the judgment of the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace be sufficient to justify the apprehension of the person accused for the offence, the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall issue his warrant for the apprehension of such person. The warrant shall be issued in the same manner as a warrant for an offence cognizable by the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace issuing it, and shall contain a memorandum, stating the place in which the offence shall be charged to have been committed, and that the warrant is issued under this Act, and if issued in pursuance of an order of Government, shall also state the fact and specify the Government. The memorandum may be to the following effect:

This warrant is issued under Act No. _____ of _____, for the within mentioned crime of _____ alleged to have been committed at _____ in _____ and is issued by order of the Government of _____

V. The warrant of any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company for the arrest of any person charged with having committed any offence whatever, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate or Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in any other part of the said territories, whether in the same Presidency or not, upon having a written authority under the hand and seal of the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, within whose jurisdiction it may be executed, previously indorsed thereon, and which indorsement may be to the following effect:

To the Nazir [or other Officer as the case may be] of the zillah of _____

"This warrant may be executed in the zillah or district of _____" [describing the zillah or district of the indorsing Magistrate or Justice of the Peace] by any of the Officers to whom the same is directed or by _____ [describing by his name or Office the Officer, to whom a similar warrant, issued by the indorsing Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, would be directed.]

VI. The Magistrate indorsing a warrant issued under the hand or official seal of any such other Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, shall not be liable to any action or other proceeding in consequence of any illegality in the issuing of the warrant; but any Magistrate illegally or improperly issuing the same, shall be liable for an arrest in pursuance of the indorsement in the same manner and to the same extent only as if the warrant had been executed within his own jurisdiction.

VII. Upon the apprehension of the supposed offender, if the offence be alleged to have been committed in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, he shall be carried before the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence shall be alleged to have been committed, and shall be by him dealt with according to law, unless by the warrant the Officer be authorized to take bail or security, and such bail or security be given for the appearance of the person accused before the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of the zillah or district in which the offence shall be alleged to have been committed. If the offence be charged to have been committed in any place not within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, the person arrested shall be forthwith carried before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, of the zillah or district in which he may be arrested. The Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, before whom the supposed offender shall be carried in pursuance of the last mentioned directions, may proceed in the same manner as in cases in which he has power to commit for trial, or to hold to bail for an offence committed within his own jurisdiction. If the evidence adduced shall be sufficient in his judgment to warrant a committal, he shall commit the accused to some place of confinement within his zillah or district, which in the judgment of the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, shall be fit for receiving the prisoner, or if there be no fit place, to the goal of the Presidency, there to remain until he shall be delivered up pursuant to the requisition, or shall be discharged by orders of Government. If no sufficient evidence be adduced to warrant either the committal or the holding to bail of the prisoner, he shall be discharged.

VIII. If the offence charged shall be one committed out of the British territories in India which, if committed within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate, would be bailable, the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may discharge the prisoner upon his giving the necessary bail. The recognizance or bail-bond in such case shall be for the appearance of the accused before the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace on a certain day to be named therein, allowing reasonable time for receiving the orders of Government, and on such subsequent days as the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall from time to time appoint.

IX. If any person shall in pursuance of this Act be carried before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace other than the one who may have issued the warrant, or a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of the same zillah or district, the depositions and documents upon which the warrant shall have been issued, or copies thereof, to be certified under the hand and seal of the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of the zillah or district in which the warrant was issued, shall be sent to the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace before whom such person shall be carried; and if the warrant shall be issued under an order of Government, and executed in a different Presidency or place to that under the Government issuing the order, notice of the arrest shall be forthwith communicated to such Government, who shall forward the requisition, and any documents upon which they may have acted in making the order to the Government to which the place where the arrest may be made shall be subject.

X. If the accused shall be proved to have been convicted and sentenced for the offence by a Court of competent jurisdiction in the territories in which the same may be alleged to have been committed, and to have escaped before the execution of such sentence, the Magistrate, upon proof of such conviction and sentence, and of a warrant or authority issued in such territories for the commitment or apprehension of the person accused in pursuance of the conviction and sentence, and upon proof that such conviction, sentence and warrant or authority would justify the apprehension of such person in the territories last aforesaid, may issue a warrant for his apprehension, and he may be arrested and committed in manner aforesaid without further proof, unless the person accused shall prove that such conviction or sentence was improperly obtained, or that the same has been reversed or annulled.

XI. If it shall appear to the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, before whom any prisoner shall be carried under this Act for an offence alleged to have been committed in any territories not under the Government of the East India Company, that particular circumstances exist which render it advisable that the case should be investigated by the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of a zillah or district nearer to such territories, he shall forthwith report the case and the particular circumstances to the Government, who shall either order such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace to proceed with the case himself, or to send the case to be investigated by the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of any other district to be named. In the latter case the prisoner shall be sent, or if the offence be bailable shall give bail to appear before such last mentioned Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, who shall have power to deal with the case as if he had issued the warrant under which the prisoner shall be arrested, and all the depositions and documents shall be forwarded to such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace. The order of Government shall be a sufficient justification for all persons acting in pursuance thereof.

XII. The Government making the order for apprehension for an offence alleged to have been committed in the territories of a Foreign Prince or State, may, if they think fit, direct that copies of the depositions, and of any exhibits upon which the original warrant or document was issued, certified under the hand of the Officer issuing such warrant, and to be proved by the person producing the same to be true copies, may be received in evidence of the criminality of the person accused. Under an order for the arrest of any person for an offence alleged to have been committed in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, copies of such documents and exhibits, certified as aforesaid, may be admitted as evidence in manner aforesaid without an order of Government and without further proof.

XIII. The Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, after committing the accused or holding him to bail as aforesaid, for any offence committed out of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, shall forthwith report the result of his proceedings to the Government to which he is subordinate, together with any remarks which he may deem necessary or proper to make upon the whole case. He shall also forward with such report a copy of all depositions which shall be taken or used before him, and of all documents referred to by such depositions, or used before him.

XIV. Upon receipt of the report, and after examining the case, the Government may, by order in writing to be signed by the Secretary to the Government, order the accused either to be discharged or to be held to bail to appear in such Court or place and at such time or times as the Government may think fit, or to be delivered up to the person authorized by the Government or Officer making the requisition, to receive and take charge of him, and the name of such person shall be specified in the order of Government. In cases falling within Act I. 1849, the Government may order the person accused to be tried under that Act.

XV. If ordered to be delivered up, the person to whom the accused may be ordered to be delivered shall not have the custody or charge of him so long as he shall remain in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, but the accused shall be conveyed in custody through such last mentioned territories towards the territories in which the offence shall be alleged to have been committed, in the same manner as a prisoner sent from the station of one district to that of another, and as soon as he shall have been conveyed to the frontiers of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, he shall be delivered over to the person in that behalf appointed by the order of Government. If such person shall not attend to receive the prisoner, the latter shall be discharged out of custody.

XVI. Any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, acting under the provisions of this Act, shall issue all necessary warrants, orders and directions for carrying the same, and also any order made under it by the Government, into effect under his signature and seal, or seal of office, if he shall have a seal of office, and all Magistrates and Officers acting in pursuance of this Act, shall have and exercise the same powers as if the offence charged had been committed within the zillah or district subject to their jurisdiction, and in cases where the accused may have been held to bail, the Magistrate may order the bail-bond to be renewed in such form as may be necessary to carry any order of Government into effect, and if such bail-bond shall not be renewed accordingly, may commit him to prison for such period as may be necessary to carry such order into effect.

XVII. In case any person arrested under this Act, shall escape out of any custody, he may be re-taken in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, in the same manner as if he had escaped from custody under process for an offence committed in that part of such last mentioned territories.

XVIII. The Government may, if they think fit, previously to making an order under this Act, require some person to be named as the prosecutor of the accused, and to give security that such person, if delivered up, shall be brought to trial with as little delay as possible, and if acquitted upon such trial, shall, if he require it, be provided with the means of returning to the place where he was apprehended, or as near thereto as he may desire free of expense, and in a manner suitable to his station of life.

XIX. If a warrant shall have been issued in any part of Her Majesty's dominions for the arrest of any person for an offence alleged to have been committed therein, or for the arrest of any person for any offence whatever of which he may have been convicted in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, by a Court of competent jurisdiction, any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, may, upon the production of such warrant or document and proof of the signature of the Officer signing it, and of his authority to issue the same, proceed to cause the person accused to be apprehended and committed, or held to bail, in manner aforesaid, as the case may require, without an order of Government, but if the offence shall be alleged to have been committed in any place not within the British territories in India, the person accused shall not be delivered over as aforesaid without such order.

XX. In cases also of necessity in which the immediate apprehension of any person accused of having committed a heinous offence as defined in Section XXII. in any of the territories mentioned in Section I. of this Act, may be necessary for the ends of justice, the person accused may be apprehended in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in the place where the person accused may be found, and after his apprehension may be committed or held to bail in manner aforesaid, as the case may require, without an order of Government, but he shall not be delivered up without such order.

XXI. If any person imprisoned under this Act shall not either be conveyed out of the Presidency or place in which he shall have been arrested, or be discharged or brought to trial within two calendar months after his committal over and above the time required to convey him from the place to which he was committed for confinement by the readiest way to the place where the offence shall be alleged to have been committed, it shall be lawful for the principal court of original jurisdiction in criminal cases in the district in which he shall be imprisoned, upon application by or on behalf of the prisoner, and upon proof that notice of the intention to make the application has been given to the Government, having authority in the place where the prisoner shall be detained, or to the Secretary of such Government, to order the person so committed to be discharged out of custody, either upon giving such bail as the Court may order, or without bail, unless sufficient cause shall be shown to such Court why such discharge ought not to be ordered.

XXII. The offences intended by the words "heinous offence" in this Act, are treason, murder, attempting to murder, rape or other great personal violence, maiming, dacoity, thuggee, robbery, burglary, breaking and entering a dwelling-house, and stealing therein, arson, setting fire to a village, house, or town, forgery or uttering forged documents, counterfeiting current coin, knowingly uttering base coin, perjury, subornation of perjury, embezzlement, whether by public officers or other persons.

XXIII. The said words "heinous offence" shall also be deemed to include cattle stealing and any offence, for which by any treaty in force between Her Majesty or the East India Company, and any foreign Prince or State, Her Majesty or the East India Company, shall, at the time of making any requisition as aforesaid, be bound to deliver up offenders to the foreign Prince or State making the same, and any other offence which in the judgment of the Government to whom the requisition shall be made, shall be of an aggravated nature, or for which the person accused cannot be punished within the territories under the Government of the East India Company.

XXIV. If by any such treaty, Her Majesty or the East India Company shall be bound to deliver up to any foreign Prince or State, any person liable to be proceeded against by the laws of such foreign Prince or State, in any case not expressly provided for by this Act, or in any manner other than that provided by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Government of any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, in which such person may be found, upon requisition made by or on the part of such foreign Prince or State, to adopt such proceedings for carrying such treaty into effect, and for the surrender of such person, and for making any preliminary inquiry into the charge contained in the requisition, as they may think fit, and any order of the Government in writing under the hand of one of the Secretaries of such Government, shall be a sufficient authority and justification for all acts to be done in execution thereof.

XXV. Sections V., VI. and VII., Regulation XI. 1827, of the Bombay Code, are repealed.

XXVI. The words "the Government," as used in this Act, means the Governor or Governor in Council, or other person or persons administering the executive Government. The words "British territories in India" shall include any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company. The word "Magistrate," as used in this Act, is intended to include a Joint Magistrate, or any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate. Words in the singular number, are intended to include the plural, and words in the masculine gender to include the feminine.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE MOST NOBLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL,

FORT WILLIAM, 31ST DECEMBER 1852.

No. 834 of 1852.—The following Notification from the Foreign Department, is re-published in General Order :

Fort William, Foreign Department, the 30th December 1852.

NOTIFICATION.—The Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct that the following Proclamation, whereby the Province of Pegu has been declared to be a portion of the British Territories in the East, shall be published for general information.

His Lordship in Council directs that in honor of this event, a Royal Salute shall be fired at every principal Station of the Army in the several Presidencies of India.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council,

C. ALLEN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

PROCLAMATION.—THE COURT OF AVA having refused to make amends for the injuries and insults which British subjects had suffered at the hands of its servants, the Governor General of India in Council resolved to exact reparation by force of arms.

The Forts and Cities upon the Coast were forthwith attacked and captured; the Burman forces have been dispersed wherever they have been met; and the Province of Pegu is now in the occupation of British Troops.

The just and moderate demands of the Government of India have been rejected by the King; the ample opportunity that has been afforded him for repairing the injury that was done, has been disregarded; and the timely submission which alone could have been effectual to prevent the dismemberment of his Kingdom, is still withheld.

Wherefore, in compensation for the past, and for better security in the future, the Governor General in Council has resolved, and hereby Proclaims, that the Province of Pegu is now, and shall be henceforth, a portion of the British Territories in the East.

Such Burman Troops as may still remain within the Province shall be driven out; Civil Government shall immediately be established; and Officers shall be appointed to administer the affairs of the several Districts.

The Governor General in Council hereby calls on the Inhabitants of Pegu to submit themselves to the authority, and to confide securely in the protection of the British Government; whose power they have seen to be irresistible, and whose rule is marked by justice and beneficence.

The Governor General in Council, having exacted the reparation he deems sufficient, desires no further conquest in Burmah, and is willing to consent that hostilities should cease.

But if the King of Ava shall fail to renew his former relations of friendship with the British Government; and if he shall recklessly seek to dispute its quiet possession of the Province it has now declared to be its own; the Governor General in Council will again put forth the power he holds, and will visit with full retribution aggressions which, if they be persisted in, must of necessity lead to the total subversion of the Burman State, and to the ruin and exile of the King and his race.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council,

C. ALLEN,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

2nd. The Opium will be ordinarily offered for Sale at an upset price of Rupees 400 per Chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which Provision is made by Clause 12 of the Conditions of Sale.

3rd. The Sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A. M., and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P. M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertized for sale shall remain unsold, the Sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a Public Holiday,) at the hour of 11 A. M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the quantity of 3,290 Chests, shall not be sold on the day advertized, the Board may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future Sale.

4th. Each lot to contain Five Chests.

5th. A deposit in a Promissory Note, either for 25 per Cent. even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or for Rupees 1,000, at the discretion of the Officer superintending the Sale, shall be made by the purchaser in the Sale Room, and before the lot is registered in the Sale Book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or by substitution of other Public Securities of the Bengal Government, on or before 4 o'clock of the afternoon of Saturday, 15th January, or on the other hand failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or deposit of other Public Securities as aforesaid, shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such Conditions of Re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit, and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such Re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such Re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

6th. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of Sale, under the last mentioned Condition if remaining unredeemed on the said 15th January, will be placed in the hands of the Attorney to the Hon'ble Company for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

7th. No tender of Money, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or Public Securities on account of Opium, upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before 4 o'clock of the 15th January, will be afterwards accepted.

8th. The Opium now advertized for Sale, shall be paid for within 15 clear days from the day of Sale, that is to say, no Treasury Receipt will be accepted in payment after 4 P. M. of Tuesday, the 25th January 1853, and in case any lots of such Opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit of 25 per Cent. even money of the amount for which each lot is knocked down, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, or any Public Securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests shall be forfeited, and the Opium be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit, and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the Re-sale and the amount at which the Opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such Re-sale.

9th. Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of Opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order, and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out, shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders, authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests originally required to be included in each certificate or order.

10th. No Sub-Treasurer's Receipts or deposit of Public Securities under the fifth of the present Conditions, will be received in this Office, except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the Sale Book or his authorized Agent. The receipt for deposit of Public Securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the Securities so deposited will be returned when clearance has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

11th. The Officer superintending the Sale, on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall, on demand, tender at the time a deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid or Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12th. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified, that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale, shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bond fide bidder, for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the 2nd Clause of these Conditions.

13th. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession any number of lots of the same Agency Opium, to the extent of Twenty-five lots, and for the lots so purchased, the purchaser shall deposit for each lot 25 per Cent. even money of the amount bid by him for the first lot, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, and pay the same price per Chest as that for which he purchased his first lot, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said Twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14th. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, and all and every Plea and Pleas to the jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court, shall be waived.

15th. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1.—Certificate of the Opium now advertized for Sale.

No. 2.—Report of the examination of such Opium.

16th. The public are hereby informed, that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1851-52, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the Drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the Cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each Cake. An account of the weight of the Drug when packed at Behar and Benares, and a statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue, and further that four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, which have been reserved from the provision of the two preceding years, will be also shewn to the purchasers on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the Drug has kept.

17th. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the Opium advertized for Sale, that may be desired by parties connected with the Trade, will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium or adulteration of the Drug which may be preferred in reference to Chests, after the sale and delivery of the Opium for shipment.

18th. The public are hereby informed, that in addition to the quantity abovementioned, the following quantities, more or less, of Behar and Benares Opium of 1851-52, will be brought to Sale in the year 1853, on or about the dates specified below. The Board however reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates, should circumstances render it expedient to do so.

The Officer superintending the Sale, on the part of the Board of Revenue, is empowered to reject at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall, on demand, tender at the time a deposit either in Bank of Bengal Notes, Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, or other Government Securities, equal to 25 per Cent. even money of the amount so bid or Rupees 1,000 for each lot.

12th. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the Sale, it is hereby notified, that the Officer of Government superintending the Sale, shall be competent at any time during the Sale to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for Sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually until a bid is obtained, and the first bona fide bidder, for a lot after it has been offered for Sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the Officer of Government superintending the Sale shall also be competent to dispose in the same manner of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of 400 Rupees specified in the 2nd Clause of these Conditions.

13th. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession any number of lots of the same Agency Opium, to the extent of Twenty-five lots, and for the lots so purchased, the purchaser shall deposit for each lot 25 per Cent. even money of the amount bid by him for the first lot, or Rupees 1,000 for each lot, and pay the same price per Chest as that for which he purchased his first lot, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of that Opium to complete the said Twenty-five, but not otherwise.

14th. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the Sale of the Opium included in this Notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Port William in Bengal, and all and every Plea and Pleas to the jurisdiction of the said Supreme Court, shall be waived.

15th. The following papers, together with samples of the Opium for Sale, will be exhibited for inspection on the day of Sale, or may be seen previously to that date by application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

No. 1.—Certificate of the Opium now advertised for Sale.

No. 2.—Report of the examination of such Opium.

16th. The public are hereby informed, that in providing the investment of the Behar and Benares Opium for the year 1851-52, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years, to have the Drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the Cakes, and to have the due proportion of Opium put into each Cake. An account of the weight of the Drug when packed at Behar and Benares, and a statement of the average weight of the Chests indiscriminately taken for the purpose of comparison from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on application at the Office of the Junior Secretary to the Board of Revenue, and further that four Chests of Behar and Benares Opium, which have been reserved from the provision of the two preceding years, will be also shown to the purchasers on the day of Sale, to enable them to judge of the state of preservation in which the Drug has kept.

17th. Any further information respecting weight or quantity of the Opium advertized for Sale, that may be desired by parties connected with the Trade, will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on application at the Office of the Board of Revenue, but in accordance with established usage under no circumstances will the Board entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of Opium or adulteration of the Drug which may be preferred in reference to Chests, after the sale and delivery of the Opium for shipment.

18th. The public are hereby informed, that in addition to the quantity abovementioned, the following quantities, more or less, of Behar and Benares Opium of 1851-52, will be brought to Sale in the year 1853, on or about the dates specified below. The Board however reserve to themselves the right of altering these dates, should circumstances render it expedient to do so.

19th. It is hereby further notified, that under the 6th Article of the Convention between Great Britain and France, dated the 7th March 1815, quoted below, the Agents in India of the French Government, or persons duly appointed by them, are entitled to demand that out of the quantities of Behar and Benares Opium declared as above for Sale at the Twelve Sales in the Months of January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December 1853, there shall be delivered to them at the average of the particular Sale or Sales to which the Opium so applied for may belong, a quantity, not exceeding in the aggregate 300 Chests, and the Agents of the French Government must make requisition for the whole of the Opium required by them during the year within 30 days after the publication of this advertisement, specifying the particular Sale or Sales from which the quantity of Opium is intended to be taken. If the Agents of the French Government shall not make the requisition for Opium within the time abovementioned, the entire quantity of about 39,462 Chests of Behar and Benares, as above estimated, will be brought to Sale in the usual manner, and if they shall make application for a quantity of Opium to be delivered to them out of the quantity advertized for Sale at each or any of the Twelve Sales abovementioned, but shall not pay for it within the prescribed period of payment, the Governor of Bengal reserves to himself the right of disposing of the Opium which the French Authorities may so fail to pay for, either by increasing the quantity reserved at the Sale next ensuing the date of payment, or by selling it at a Sale to be held expressly for the purpose.

Article 6th. "With regard to the Trade in
"Opium, it is agreed between
"the high contracting parties

No. 151 of 1852.

OUR GOVERNOR OF THE PRESIDENCY OF FORT WILLIAM IN BENGAL.

PARA. I. We concur in the opinion expressed

Reply to Letter, dated 16th July 1852, No. 125.

The Command of the Bengal
Artillery, vacant by the nomination of Brigadier Shaw to the Divisional Staff, conferred on Brigadier Gowan, C. B. The Commander-in-Chief in recommending this appointment observed that Colonel Powney, an Officer regimentally senior to Brigadier Gowan, may soon be expected from England; and suggested that the appointment of Commandant of Artillery may be so conferred upon Brigadier Gowan as to ensure his permanent tenure of the Command.
Government notice the precedents applicable to this question, and advert particularly to the hardship which attends the displacement from what is virtually a Divisional Command of Brigadier Gowan and others, analogous circumstances by the return of an Officer from England.

in this Despatch, that the Command exercised by the Commandant of the Artillery, is in the nature of a Brigade or Divisional Command. We have in consequence,
resolved that the Command of the Artillery
shall be held hereafter on the same terms as Brigades or Divisional Commands, viz., for five years only, provided, as in the case of Brigadiers, the Officer holding the Command has succeeded to the benefits of the Officiating
Fund, and subject
also to the general

condition applicable to Commanders of Divisions and Brigades, that if on any particular occasion, you should be of opinion that the continued service of any Commandant is indispensable to the public interests, you may continue him in the Command until our decision thereon is made known to you. Upon every such occasion you will furnish us with the requisite information, with the least possible delay.

2. Officers who have served their tour of Command under this Regulation and who are succeeded by a junior Officer, will be eligible to remain in India as Colonels or Lieutenant-Colonels unemployed, until selected for Divisional Commands. If succeeded by a senior Officer, they may revert to their regimental duties.

3. The Brigadier Commandant of Artillery, like Brigadiers on the Staff, will not be liable to be displaced from his Command by the arrival of a senior Officer from Europe.

4. The above rule will come into effect at the three Presidencies in the manner prescribed, when the appointment of Brigadier was limited to a tour of five years' service, viz.:

"This regulation is not to be applied retrospectively to the period which Brigadiers may have served as such, prior to its announcement in General Orders, but we are of opinion, that for every two years which they may then have served as Brigadiers, they should be considered as having served one year towards the completion of their tour under the new regulation."

SATURDAY, JANUARY 15, 1853.

Port William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 7th January 1853.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Governor General of India in Council, in the Legislative Branch of the Home Department, under date the 7th January 1853, is published for general information:

Read a second time the revised Draft of a proposed Act dated the 27th February 1852, and published in the Supplement to the Calcutta Gazette of the 3rd March 1852, to amend the law of evidence in the Civil Courts of the Bengal Presidency.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council resolves, that the following amended Draft on the subject, be published for general information,
Act No. — of 1853.

An Act to amend the Law of Evidence in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Bengal Presidency.

Whereas the law of evidence administered by the Civil Courts of the Presidency of Port William in Bengal, and the rules for the attendance and examination of witnesses and the production of documents in such Courts, require amendment, It is enacted as follows:

I. Sections XXXIII. and LXXIII. Regulation XXIII. 1814, of the Bengal Code, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, Section XI., Regulation XXIV. 1814 of the same Code, except so far as it relates to the signing and issuing of any process of Court to which the signature of the judge may not be specially required, and Section I., Act VI. 1843, so far as it authorizes the examination of witnesses according to the rules established by Section XI. Regulation XXIV. 1814, aforesaid, are hereby repealed.

II. In any regular or summary suit, appeal, or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in any summary suit, or other proceeding of a civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or by consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, any party to such suit, appeal or proceeding, shall be competent and entitled to give evidence as a witness either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other party to the suit, appeal, or proceeding, in the same manner as if he were not a party to the same. Provided that no party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open court, in such manner as the court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Sections XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

III. No person shall, by reason only of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, be incompetent to give evidence in any such suit.

IV. A husband or wife shall not be competent to give evidence for or against the other without the consent of such other. With such consent either of them shall be competent to give evidence for or against the other, provided that the examination shall take place in Court in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, or that it be taken and read under, and subject to the Rules prescribed in Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

V. Any party to any such suit may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner, by the same process, and subject to the same Rules, as if he were not a party to the suit, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act. Provided that no Court need to compel the attendance of any party to such suit, for the purpose of giving evidence therein if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, and shall also undertake, by himself, or his vakeel duly authorized by writing signed by him to give such undertaking, that he will produce, or cause to be produced to the Court, at such time and place as may be appointed for that purpose, any document which he may previously have been summoned to produce, or shall satisfy the Court that such document is not in his custody, possession or power or under his control, and shall further undertake, if required by the Court so to do, either by himself, or by his vakeel duly authorized by writing signed by him to give such undertaking, that any local agent, manager, or other person who may have acted on his behalf in any matter which may form a subject of inquiry in the suit, shall attend the Court on the trial, and that if such person shall neglect so to do, the party will himself attend. In the event of a breach of any undertaking given under this Section, the party bound by the undertaking shall be liable to such fine, not exceeding one thousand Rupees as the Court, Judge or other presiding Officer shall direct, to be levied in manner directed by Section XXIV. of this Act, for the levy of any penalty imposed under that Section, and may also be compelled to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document in the same manner as any other person. Nothing in this Clause shall exempt any party to a suit from being summoned to produce any document.

VI. After the parties in any suit in which according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing shall have filed their exhibits and lists of witnesses, the Court shall, by an order in writing, appoint a day, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof, for the examination of witnesses and the hearing of the suit.

VII. The list of witnesses required to be furnished in any suit shall include the names of all the witnesses, whether parties to the suit or not, whom the party filing the list may intend to call as witnesses or whom he may require to be summoned to give evidence or produce any document, also a list of the documents which he may require to be produced.

VIII. If any party to any suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall make a special application to the Court for an order for the Summons or attendance of the party, and shall show good and sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

IX. The Court, upon the application of the Vakeel of any party to a suit whose attendance as a witness may be required, or without such application, if the Court shall think fit so to do, may, before appointing a day for the hearing, fix some day, previous to the day to be appointed for the hearing, for such party to satisfy him that he has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, and also to give such undertaking if required, as is mentioned in Section V. and may also, from time to time if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

X. For the purpose of satisfying the Court that the party to the suit whose evidence may be required has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, the Court may receive a declaration in writing of such party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by such party, or his vakeel. Provided that such declaration, in addition to any other statement which it may contain, shall state, to the best of the belief of the party making it, whether any document which he may have been summoned or had notice to produce is in his custody, possession, or power, or under his control, or was so at the time of the service of such notice, or summons, and, if not, whether such document ever was in his custody, possession, or power, or under his control, and if so when for the last time, and what, to the best of his knowledge and belief, has become of such document: and provided also that such declaration shall also state whether any agent, local manager, or other person acted for such party, or on his behalf in any matter connected with the suit, or forming a subject of inquiry therein, and if so shall state the name of such agent, local manager, or other person, and his place of abode, if known.

XI. If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and upon conviction punished accordingly.

XII. The Court may, on the requisition of any party to any such suit, or his vakeel, cause a summons to be issued to every person who may be required to produce any material document. Previously to issuing any summons for the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document, the party requiring the same shall pay into Court such sum as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of such person in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend, and give evidence, and for one day's attendance thereat. In fixing the sum to be paid into Court, regard shall be had to the rules, if any, established by the Court or Board, if any, to which such Court shall be subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally. In addition to the sum so paid into Court, the Court before whom any person who may attend in pursuance of a summons, or proclamation to give evidence or produce any document, may order such further sum to be paid to the person so attending by the person causing the summons or proclamation to be issued, as may appear to be necessary to defray his travelling and other expenses, and also the expenses of his detention under the summons, or proclamation, and in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, and the witness shall not be bound to give evidence or produce any document until such sum shall be paid.

XIII. Every summons for the attendance of a witness to give evidence, or to produce a document shall set forth at whose request it is issued, and shall require the intended witness to attend at a time and place to be named in the summons, and shall also state whether the attendance of the witness is required for the purpose of giving evidence, or producing a document, or for both purposes. If the witness be a party to the suit and he shall be required to give evidence, the summons shall require him either to appear at a time and place to be named therein to give evidence, or to show good and sufficient cause to the Court issuing the summons, on some previous day, also to be named in the summons, and not being less than a week before the day fixed for the hearing, why such party should not appear to give evidence. If a witness, whether a party to the suit or not, is required to attend, and to produce before the Court any document alleged by the party summoning him to be in his possession or power, a direction to attend the Court with such document shall be inserted in the summons, and the document which the witness may be so called upon to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

XIV. Every such summons shall, if possible, be served personally upon the person thereby required to attend, by showing the original to such person, and at the same time delivering or tendering to him a copy thereof. Such service must be made a sufficient time before the time specified therein for his attendance to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required, and if the witness be a party to a suit and summoned to give evidence, the summons must be served in time to enable him to show cause at the time and place named therein, why he should not be bound to attend, and give evidence.

XV. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he cause such document to be produced, instead of attending personally to produce the same.

XVI. A party to a suit who may be summoned to give evidence shall be bound to attend as a witness at the time and place to be named for that purpose in the summons, and to remain there until after the trial, or until he shall be dismissed by the Court, unless he shall show good and sufficient cause to the contrary to be allowed by the Court issuing the same at the time to be named for that purpose in the summons, or at any subsequent time to which the time for that purpose may be enlarged by the Court, for good and sufficient cause.

XVII. Any person not a party to the suit who may be summoned to appear and give evidence, shall be bound to attend at the time and place named for that purpose, and to remain there until after the trial, or until he shall be dismissed by the Court.

XVIII. Any person attending to produce a document may be called upon to produce the same without being sworn or examined as a witness.

XIX. A witness not being a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned, shall not be bound to produce his own title deeds, unless he shall have agreed so to do, with the party requiring the production thereof.

XX. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

XXI. A witness being a party to the suit shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence, in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

XXII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to produce it, or cause it to be produced to the Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party

calling for it to compel its production, or to the reading, or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof; the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court, and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it, and it shall also be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, and if necessary to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence. If the Court shall be of opinion that such document should not be produced, the Court shall not disclose the contents thereof to the parties, or take any note, or make any mention of the contents or effect thereof in its judgment or proceedings, but shall return the document at once to the party producing the same, having previously marked the same for the purpose of identification, and shall record in its proceedings, that a document, identifying it by the mark put upon it, was called for, naming the person who may call for its production, that the person having the possession of the document, naming him, objected to its production, and the reasons, if any, for such objection, together with the reasons of the Court for refusing to compel its production. If the Court shall refuse to enforce the production of a document, or to receive the same in evidence, the Court of appeal may, upon a regular appeal, compel the production of such document, and if such Court shall think that the production of the same ought to have been enforced, or that it ought to have been received in evidence, may themselves enforce its production, and receive it in evidence, and decide the case upon such document, coupled with the other evidence given in the suit.

XXIII. A barrister, attorney, or vakeel, shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he may have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such barrister, attorney, or vakeel, of any such matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the barrister, attorney, or vakeel would have been bound to disclose, but for the privilege of his client, and the barrister, attorney, or vakeel, shall be bound, upon examination, to disclose any such matter.

XXIV. If any witness, whether a party to a suit or not, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document, shall have been personally delivered shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons as required by this Act, or attending, or being present in Court, shall without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court shall have full power and authority to issue an order in writing to the nazir to apprehend and bring the witness before the Court; or, if he be already before the Court, to take him into custody. And such Court may impose on such witness a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for his default or refusal, realizable by attachment and sale of his property, and may commit him to close custody until he shall consent to give his evidence, or to sign his deposition, or to produce the document, and any such fine as aforesaid shall be levied and recovered by attachment and sale of the property of such person. If any such person shall abscond, or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be seized or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the same manner as is provided by Section XXVII. of this Act, with respect to a witness on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected. If such person shall be a party to the suit, the Court, in addition to any proceedings to which any witness not being a party to the suit, would in such case be subject as aforesaid, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss his complaint, appeal or petition, with costs as against such party; or if such party be a defendant or respondent, may hear, and decide the case as against such defendant or respondent ex-parte. If any such complaint, appeal or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant, or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal or complaint in the same matter.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend, and give evidence, or produce a document, shall be personally delivered, and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons, and any person who, being in Court, shall, upon being required by the Court to give evidence, or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings under Section XXIV. of this Act, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence, or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect, or refusal, or of such absconding, or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in a civil action.

XXVII. If a person, whether a party to a suit, or not, for whose attendance either to give evidence or produce a document a summons may be issued, cannot, after diligent search, to be certified by a return of the nazir, be found, the Court upon proof that the evidence of such witness, or the production of the document, is material, and that the witness absconds, or keeps out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, and that he could not, after diligent search, be found or served with the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document at a time and place to be named therein, to be affixed, in the presence, and with the attestation of two respectable householders of the village, outside his house or place of usual abode in some conspicuous place, and if such person shall not attend at the time and place to be named in such proclamation, and it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the witness cannot be found, his property, real and personal, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, (but subject to the same limitation as to the Articles exempt from attachment as in case of attachment for arrears of rent,) shall be liable, under an order of the Court, to attachment and sale. Provided always, that when the order for attachment and sale shall have been issued by any Court subordinate to the Court of Sadder Dewanny Adawlat, a summary appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the order of the subordinate Court to the Court to which its orders are generally appealable; and that the Rules for the time being in force in regard to sales made in execution of decrees, as to the mode and period of attachment and the place or manner of sale, and as to claims of third parties to property attached and notified for sale, shall be held applicable to such sales.

XXVIII. The cost of the attachment shall be borne in the first instance by the party applying for it, and the Court issuing the summons and attachment shall not proceed to sale of the property, if the person summoned as a witness shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons. Upon the appearance of such witness, the Court shall make such order, in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If the witness appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to order the property attached to be forfeited and sold or to be released from attachment, upon payment of all costs incurred in consequence of such default or absconding, or keeping out of the way, and of such fine as the Court may deem reasonable, with reference to the circumstances of the case, and the condition in life of the witness, and such fine may be recovered by sale of the property attached, a sufficient portion of which may be retained and sold under the attachment for that purpose, and the residue may be either released or retained to satisfy the party injured such damages as may be recovered against the witness for absconding, or keeping out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, as the Court may think fit to direct: such last mentioned order shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same period, as an appeal against an order for attachment and sale under the last preceding Section of this Act.

XXIX. All orders as to fines, or the levying thereof, or as to imprisonment under this Act, shall be subject to a similar appeal within one month from the date of the order.

XXX. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness, who may neglect, or refuse to attend, or who may abscond, or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as may appear proper to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case; provided that when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit, to give evidence, or produce any document, the Court shall, at the request of the Defendant or Respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until he can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required; and that where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent, to give evidence, or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

XXXI. On the day appointed for the hearing, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction of the Judge, and shall be recorded in such manner, and according to such forms as shall be from time to time prescribed in that behalf by the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties, or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party, or his vakeel, shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties, or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanor of any witness whilst under examination.

XXXII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a Commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such Commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels, to cross examine anything in Section V. Act VII. 1841, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. On or before the day appointed for trial, the Court may, for any sufficient reason, such as the unavoidable absence of any material witness, or for other good cause, on the application of either party, postpone the hearing to another day, to be named, on such terms as to the payment of the costs of postponement to the opposite party, as to the Court shall seem reasonable. In such case notice in writing shall be given to each of the witnesses to attend and give evidence, or to produce a document on the substituted day, instead of the day mentioned in their summonses, if there be time to do so and the judge shall so order. The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons. The service of such notice shall have the same effect as if the substituted day had been originally named in such summons as the day for the appearance in Court to give evidence or produce a document, and all the provisions in this Act relating to summonses to give evidence or produce documents, shall extend to such notices in the same manner as if such notices had been expressly mentioned in such provisions. If the application be too late to serve such notices, the Court may order that the examination of any witness who may be present, or shall attend in pursuance of a summons, shall be proceeded with, and that the further hearing of the case, after the examination of such witness, shall alone be postponed.

XXXIV. Unless the hearing be postponed in manner aforesaid, it shall commence on the day appointed, or as soon afterwards as the business which may be pending before the Court and may be entitled to priority will allow, and the recording of evidence on the trial of any suit when begun under the rules above enacted, shall continue on the same day, or on consecutive business days, until the whole of the evidence of the witnesses present shall be heard. The pleaders shall then be heard orally on the merits of the case as regards the issues both of fact and law, and after considering the argument and evidence, the Judge shall record his judgment under Act XII. 1843.

XXXV. If the Court, after the evidence of all the witnesses shall have been heard, and before hearing the pleaders, or recording the judgment, shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to inspect any document, or to examine any party to the suit, or any other person whose evidence may appear to be material, the Court, of its own accord, may cause such party or person to be summoned to attend as witness, to give evidence, or to produce such document, if in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine such party or person as a witness in open Court, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, upon any question which the party or witness may be bound to answer, and the Court may think necessary, and may also compel the production of any document mentioned in such summons, which any such person may have in his possession or power, and be bound to produce. Any witness so called shall be subject to the cross-examination of either party, or his vakeel. If such person, whether a party or not, shall be a female, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as a witness in a Court of Justice, the Court may order such person to be examined in the manner provided by Section XXXII. of this Act, upon such questions as he may direct. The Commissioner or other person authorized to take the examination in such case may put such further questions as in his judgment may be necessary, or may arise out of the answers to be given to the questions directed by the Court.

XXXVI. The Judge, on the application of either party, may cause public notice to be given in Court, either before or during the examination of any witness, requiring all or any other witnesses, whether parties or not, who have been summoned or inserted in the list of witnesses in the same cause, to leave the Court, or to remain out of the same. Any witness in a cause who without lawful excuse shall remain in, or come into Court, contrary to such notice, shall be punishable as for contempt, and shall be liable, at the dis-erection of the Judge, to any fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or in the case of non-payment to imprisonment in the civil jail, without labor, for any term not exceeding one calendar month. Whenever such notice shall be given, the consequence of disobedience thereto shall be publicly explained at the time of giving the notice. Care shall be taken that any witness who may be examined in the absence of the other witnesses shall not have any communication with such other witnesses prior to their examination.

XXXVII. Any party to a suit, appeal or proceeding who may be examined as a witness therein, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him, in the same manner as if he were not a party.

XXXVIII. The words "Witness" and "Witnesses" in Act VII. 1841, shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section at the instance of any opposite party may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of, such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also, that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence, unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion, or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that, in the judgment of the Court, it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last-mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow, or refuse such deposition to be read.

XXXIX. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding.

XI. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid, shall refer to any document in his possession or power, in any pleading or statement, he shall file such document with the pleading or statement, unless the Court shall, for good and sufficient cause, extend the time for filing the same, and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself, or his vakeel, to inspect and take a copy of the document before he shall be bound to answer such pleading or statement.

XII. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company, and shall include any Judge or other officer or person mentioned in Section II. of this Act; the word "Justice" shall be understood to mean the chief judicial authority presiding in any such Court, and shall include any officer, or person having, by law, or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses and to act judicially; the word "Suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal or proceeding mentioned in Section II.; the word "Witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number, shall include the feminine gender or plural number and vice versa.

XLII. This Act shall extend only to Civil proceedings, and to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and shall not include any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 7th day of March next.

J. P. GRANT,
Secy. to the Govt. of India,

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 14th January 1853.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Governor General of India in Council in the Legislative branch of the Home Department, under date the 14th January 1853, is published for general information:

Read a second time the draft of a proposed Act, dated the 2nd July 1852, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 7th July 1852, to amend Act No. VI. of 1852.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council resolves that the following amended draft on the subject be published for general information:

ACT No. — OF 1853.

An Act to repeal Act No. VI. of 1852, and to make provision for defraying the cost of the Light-House on Pedra Branca, and for maintaining the same, and also a Floating Light established in the Straits of Malacca to the West of Singapore, and for the establishment and maintenance of such further lights in or near to the said Straits as may be deemed expedient.

WHEREAS it was deemed desirable, for the safety and guidance of Ships navigating the China Seas, to build a Light-House on the Island Rock called Pedra Branca, situate at the Eastern entrance of the Straits of Singapore; and whereas certain sums of money were subscribed by private individuals for that purpose, but the same were insufficient to defray the expense of building such Light-House; and whereas the East India Company agreed to build such Light-House, and to advance certain sums of money to complete the same, on condition that the said sums of money should be repaid to them by the levy of certain tolls; and whereas since the passing of Act No. VI. 1852 a floating light has been established by the East India Company in the Straits of Malacca to the West of Singapore, at a place called the 24 fathom bank, and it may hereafter be deemed expedient to establish and maintain other lights or beacons in or near to the said Straits for the safety and guidance of Ships navigating the same; and whereas many Ships which derive the benefit of the Horsburgh Light and the said floating light established as aforesaid, do not contribute to the expense thereof, and it is just and reasonable that they should be liable so to do: It is enacted as follows:

1. Act No. VI. 1852 is hereby repealed, except so far as it relates to any act already done under the same, or to any toll now due under the provisions thereof, or to any proceedings already adopted or hereafter to be adopted for the recovery of any such toll.

II. The Light-House on Pedra Branca aforesaid, shall continue to be called "The Horsburgh Light-House," and the said Light-House, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging or occupied for the purposes thereof, and all the fixtures, apparatus and furniture belonging thereto, shall remain the property of, and be absolutely vested in, the East India Company and their successors.

III. The light maintained at the Horsburgh Light-House, and the said floating light established as aforesaid, and such other lights as may be established by the East India Company in lieu of such floating light, or in addition thereto, in or near to the Straits of Malacca or Singapore, shall be called "The Straits Lights."

IV. If, after the passing of this Act, any ship of the burden of fifty tons or upwards, shall depart from or enter any port, harbour or roadstead in the possession or under the Government of the East India Company, upon, or during or at the termination of any voyage, in the ordinary course of which she would pass any of the said lights, a toll shall be paid in respect of such Ship as follows: that is to say—

If the voyage be one in the ordinary course whereof such Ship would pass the whole of the said lights, one anna for every ton of her burden.

If the voyage be one in the ordinary course of which she would pass any one or more of the said lights, but not all of them, half an anna for every ton of her burden. Provided that such toll shall not be payable at any such port or place if such toll shall have been paid at any other port or place under the Government of the East India Company in respect of the same voyage, and a proper voucher for such payment shall be produced, or other satisfactory proof of such payment given. Provided also that no toll shall be payable on account of any Ship in respect of any voyage for which toll may have been already paid, or become payable under the said Act No. VI. 1852.

V. The return of a Ship from any port or place shall be deemed a distinct voyage within the meaning of this Act, notwithstanding she may have paid the toll abovementioned in respect of her voyage to such port or place, and notwithstanding the terms of any Charter-party.

VI. All Ships of War belonging to Her Majesty, or any Foreign Government or State, and all Ships belonging to the East India Company, shall be exempt from the payment of such toll.

VII. The management and control of the said "Horsburgh Light-House," and of the said Straits Lights, are hereby vested in the Governor of the Straits Settlements.

VIII. The said Governor may appoint any person he may think fit, to be a collector of the tolls payable under this Act, at any port, harbour, or place under his government.

IX. The Funds raised by the tolls payable under this Act shall be applicable in the first place to defray the necessary expenses of maintaining and keeping up the said Light-House and the said Straits Lights, and the establishment and maintenance of such other lights as aforesaid, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit to establish and maintain, and all necessary expenses incidental thereto, and the surplus thereof shall, from time to time, be applied in liquidation of the moneys advanced by the East India Company towards the erection and completion of the said Light-House, and the apparatus and furniture thereof.

X. The toll to be levied under this Act shall become due and payable in respect of Ships clearing out or departing from any port, harbour or roadstead, in the possession or under the Government of the East India Company, upon any such voyage as aforesaid, previously to the granting of any Port-Clearance for such Ship, or, in the event of her not requiring a Port-Clearance, on her preparing to leave such port, harbour or roadstead on such voyage; in respect of any Ship entering any such port, harbour or roadstead as aforesaid, upon any such voyage from any port or place not under the Government of the East India Company, the toll shall be payable immediately upon her entering such port, harbour or roadstead.

XI. The Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at any port, harbour or place in the possession, or under the Government of the East India Company, or any Officer in that behalf whom the Government to which such port, harbour or place is subordinate may appoint to receive the tolls abovementioned, shall collect the same. The Officer to whom any such toll shall be paid shall grant to the person paying the same a proper voucher in writing, under his hand, describing the name of his office, and the port or place at which such payment shall be made, the name, tonnage and other proper description of the Ship, and the voyage in respect of which such toll shall be paid.

XII. No Officer of Customs at any of the said ports, harbours or roadsteads shall receive any entry or report inwards or outwards of any Ship liable to any tolls payable under this Act, in respect of any voyage, until the owner, master or other person having the command of such vessel shall pay such tolls, or shall produce a proper voucher for the payment thereof for the same voyage at some other port, harbour or place.

XIII. The Officer of Government, whose duty it shall be to grant a Port-Clearance for any Ship clearing out of, or leaving any such port, harbour or place under the Government of the East India Company, shall not grant such Port-Clearance to any Ship until the owner, agent, master or other person in command of such Ship shall pay all tolls to which such Ship or Vessel shall be liable under this Act, or produce a proper voucher for, or give satisfactory proof of, the payment of such tolls at some other port or place. If any master or owner, or other person having the charge of any Vessel liable to the payment of any tolls under this Act, shall refuse or neglect to pay the amount thereof to the person authorized to collect or receive the same, such person may distrain any goods or merchandize, to whomsoever the same may belong, on board such Ship, and any tackle, apparel or furniture belonging to such Ship, and may remove the same to some convenient place, leaving notice in writing of such distress, and of the cause thereof, and of the place of removal on board such Ship. If such tolls, together with the costs of such distress and removal, shall not be paid within three whole days after the seizure, exclusive of the day of such seizure, the person authorized to collect such tolls may cause the goods, merchandize, tackle, apparel and furniture so seized, to be appraised and sold, and out of the proceeds of such sale shall pay the amount of the tolls to which such Ship may be liable under this Act, together with the reasonable costs of such seizure, detention, appraisement and sale, rendering to the master or owner, or other person having the command of such Vessel, the overplus, if any, on demand.

XIV. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the person authorized to collect the said tolls at any such port, harbour or place aforesaid, may, in his own name, sue for and recover, on behalf of the East India Company, the amount of any tolls payable to him under this Act, by action of debt in any of the Civil Courts of Her Majesty or of the East India Company against the owner, or master, or other person, who at the time of such toll becoming due shall own or have the command of any Ship liable thereto.

XV. In order to ascertain the burden of any Ship liable to pay toll under this Act, the person authorized to collect such toll may require the owner, master or other person in command of such Ship, or any person having possession of the same, to produce the register of such Ship for the inspection of such person, and upon the refusal or neglect of any such owner, master or other person to produce such register, or otherwise to satisfy the person authorized to collect such tolls as to what is the true burden of the Ship, it shall be lawful for the person authorized to collect such tolls to deliver to such master, owner or other person in command of the Ship, or in the possession thereof, or to leave for him on board such Ship, a notice in writing, specifying what in his judgment is the burden of the Ship, and the burden specified in such notice shall be deemed to be the real burden of the Ship, and he treated as such for all the purposes of this Act, until the owner, master or other person having the command of the Ship shall give sufficient proof of the true burden thereof.

XVI. The Governor General of India in Council may, from time to time, as he may think fit, reduce the tolls payable under this Act, and again raise the same to any amount not exceeding the amounts above specified.

XVII. The word "Ship" throughout this Act shall be held to mean and include a Schooner, Cutter, Brig, Brigantine, Barque, Steam-boat and any square-rigged Vessel.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 14th day of April next.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 7th January 1853.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Governor General of India in Council, in the Legislative Branch of the Home Department, under date the 7th January 1853, is published for general information:

Read a second time the revised Draft of a proposed Act dated the 27th February 1852, and published in the Supplement to the Calcutta Gazette of the 3rd March 1852, to amend the law of evidence in the Civil Courts of the Bengal Presidency.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council resolves, that the following amended Draft on the subject, be published for general information.

ACT No. — OF 1853.

An Act to amend the Law of Evidence in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Bengal Presidency.

Whereas the law of evidence administered by the Civil Courts of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and the rules for the attendance and examination of witnesses and the production of documents in such Courts, require amendment, It is enacted as follows:

I. Sections XXXIII. and LXXIII. Regulation XXIII. 1814, of the Bengal Code, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, Section XI. Regulation XXIV. 1814 of the same Code, except so far as it relates to the signing and sealing of any process of Court to which the signature of the Judge may not be specially required, and Section I. Act VI. 1843, so far as it authorizes the examination of witnesses according to the rules established by Section XI. Regulation XXIV. 1814, aforesaid, are hereby repealed.

II. In any regular or summary suit, appeal, or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in any summary suit, or other proceeding of a civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or by consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, any party to such suit, appeal or proceeding, shall be competent and entitled to give evidence as a witness either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other party to the suit, appeal, or proceeding, in the same manner as if he were not a party to the same. Provided that no party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open court, in such manner as the court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Sections XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

III. No person shall, by reason only of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, be incompetent to give evidence in any such suit.

IV. A husband or wife shall not be competent to give evidence for or against the other without the consent of such other. With such consent either of them shall be competent to give evidence for or against the other, provided that the examination shall take place in Court in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, or that it be taken and read under, and subject to the Rules prescribed in Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

V. Any party to any such suit may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner, by the same process, and subject to the same Rules, as if he were not a party to the suit, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act. Provided that no Court need to compel the attendance of any party to such suit, for the purpose of giving evidence therein if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, and shall also undertake, by himself, or his vakeel duly authorized by writing signed by him to give such undertaking, that he will produce, or cause to be produced to the Court, at such time and place as may be appointed for that purpose, any document which he may previously have been summoned to produce, or shall satisfy the Court that such document is not in his custody, possession or power or under his control, and shall further undertake, if required by the Court so to do, either by himself, or by his vakeel duly authorized by writing signed by him to give such undertaking, that any local agent, manager, or other person who may have acted on his behalf in any matter which may form a subject of inquiry in the suit, shall attend the Court on the trial, and that if such person shall neglect so to do, the party will himself attend. In the event of a breach of any undertaking given under this Section, the party bound by the undertaking shall be liable to such fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees as the Court, Judge or other presiding Officer shall direct, to be levied in manner directed by Section XXIV. of this Act, for the levy of any penalty imposed under that Section, and may also be compelled to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document in the same manner as any other person. Nothing in this Clause shall exempt any party to a suit from being summoned to produce any document.

VI. After the parties in any suit in which according to the practice of the Court a day is fixed for the hearing shall have filed their exhibits and lists of witnesses, the Court shall, by an order in writing, appoint a day, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof, for the examination of witnesses and the hearing of the suit.

VII. The list of witnesses required to be furnished in any suit shall include the names of all the witnesses, whether parties to the suit or not, whom the party filing the list may intend to call as witnesses or whom he may require to be summoned to give evidence or produce any document, also a list of the documents which he may require to be produced.

VIII. If any party to any suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall make a special application to the Court for an order for the Summons or attendance of the party, and shall show good and sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

IX. The Court, upon the application of the Vakeel of any party to a suit whose attendance as a witness may be required, or without such application, if the Court shall think fit so to do, may, before appointing a day for the hearing, fix some day, previous to the day to be appointed for the hearing, for such party to satisfy him that he has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, and also to give such undertaking if required, as is mentioned in Section V. and may also, from time to time if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

X. For the purpose of satisfying the Court that the party to the suit whose evidence may be required has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, the Court may receive a declaration in writing of such party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by such party, or his vakeel. Provided that such declaration, in addition to any other statement which it may contain, shall state, to the best of the belief of the party making it, whether any document which he may have been summoned, or had notice to produce is in his custody, possession, or power, or under his control, or was so at the time of the service of such notice, or summons, and, if not, whether such document ever was in his custody, possession, or power, or under his control, and if so when for the last time, and what, to the best of his knowledge and belief, has become of such document; and provided also that such declaration shall also state whether any agent, local manager, or other person acted for such party, or on his behalf in any matter connected with the suit, or forming a subject of inquiry therein, and if so shall state the name of such agent, local manager, or other person, and his place of abode, if known.

XI. If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and upon conviction punished accordingly.

XII. The Court may, on the requisition of any party to any such suit, or his vakeel, cause a summons to be issued to every person who may be required to produce any material document. Previously to issuing any summons for the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document, the party requiring the same shall pay into Court such sum as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of such person in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend, and give evidence, and for one day's attendance thereat. In fixing the sum to be paid into Court, regard shall be had to the rules, if any, established by the Court or Board, if any, to which such Court shall be subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally. In addition to the sum so paid into Court, the Court before whom any person who may attend in pursuance of a summons, or proclamation to give evidence or produce any document, may order such further sum to be paid to the person so attending by the person causing the summons or proclamation to be issued, as may appear to be necessary to defray his travelling and other expenses, and also the expenses of his detention under the summons, or proclamation, and in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, and the witness shall not be bound to give evidence or produce any document until such sum shall be paid.

XIII. Every summons for the attendance of a witness to give evidence, or to produce a document shall set forth at whose request it is issued, and shall require the intended witness to attend at a time and place to be named in the summons, and shall also state whether the attendance of the witness is required for the purpose of giving evidence, or producing a document, or for both purposes. If the witness be a party to the suit and he shall be required to give evidence, the summons shall require him either to appear at a time and place to be named therein to give evidence, or to show good and sufficient cause to the Court issuing the summons, on some previous day, also to be named in the summons, and not being less than a week before the day fixed for the hearing, why such party should not appear to give evidence. If a witness, whether a party to the suit or not, is required to attend, and to produce before the Court any document alleged by the party summoning him to be in his possession or power, a direction to attend the Court with such document shall be inserted in the summons, and the document which the witness may be so called upon to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

XIV. Every such summons shall, if possible, be served personally upon the person thereby required to attend, by showing the original to such person, and at the same time delivering or tendering to him a copy thereof. Such service must be made a sufficient time before the time specified therein for his attendance to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required, and if the witness be a party to a suit and summoned to give evidence, the summons must be served in time to enable him to show cause at the time and place named therein, why he should not be bound to attend, and give evidence.

XV. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he cause such document to be produced, instead of attending personally to produce the same.

XVI. A party to a suit who may be summoned to give evidence shall be bound to attend as a witness at the time and place to be named for that purpose in the summons, and to remain there until after the trial, or until he shall be dismissed by the Court, unless he shall show good and sufficient cause to the contrary to be allowed by the Court issuing the same at the time to be named for that purpose in the summons, or at any subsequent time to which the time for that purpose may be enlarged by the Court, for good and sufficient cause.

XVII. Any person not a party to the suit who may be summoned to appear and give evidence shall be bound to attend at the time and place named for that purpose, and to remain there until after the trial, or until he shall be dismissed by the Court.

XVIII. Any person attending to produce a document may be called upon to produce the same without being sworn or examined as a witness.

XIX. A witness not being a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned, shall not be bound to produce his own title deeds, unless he shall have agreed so to do, with the party requiring the production thereof.

XX. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

XXI. A witness being a party to the suit shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence, in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

XXII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to produce it, or cause it to be produced to the Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production, or to the

reading, or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof; the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court, and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it, and it shall also be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, and if necessary to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence. If the Court shall be of opinion that such document should not be produced, the Court shall not disclose the contents thereof to the parties, or take any note, or make any mention of the contents or effect thereof in its judgment or proceedings, but shall return the document at once to the party producing the same, having previously marked the same for the purpose of identification, and shall record in its proceedings, that a document, identifying it by the mark put upon it, was called for, naming the person who may call for its production, that the person having the possession of the document, naming him, objected to its production, and the reasons, if any, for such objection, together with the reasons of the Court for refusing to compel its production. If the Court shall refuse to enforce the production of a document, or to receive the same in evidence, the Court of appeal may, upon a regular appeal, compel the production of such document, and if such Court shall think that the production of the same ought to have been enforced, or that it ought to have been received in evidence, may themselves enforce its production, and receive it in evidence, and decide the case upon such document, coupled with the other evidence given in the suit.

XXIII. A barrister, attorney, or vakeel, shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he may have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein, at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such barrister, attorney, or vakeel, of any such matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the barrister, attorney, or vakeel would have been bound to disclose, but for the privilege of his client, and the barrister, attorney, or vakeel, shall be bound, upon examination, to disclose any such matter.

XXIV. If any witness, whether a party to a suit or not, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document, shall have been personally delivered shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons as required by this Act, or attending, or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court shall have full power and authority to issue an order in writing to the nazir to apprehend and bring the witness before the Court; or, if he be already before the Court, to take him into custody. And such Court may impose on such witness a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for his default or refusal, realizable by attachment and sale of his property, and may commit him to close custody until he shall consent to give his evidence, or to sign his deposition, or to produce the document, and any such fine as aforesaid shall be levied and recovered by attachment and sale of the property of such person. If any such person shall abscond, or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be seized or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the same manner as is provided by Section XXVII. of this Act, with respect to a witness on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected. If such person shall be a party to the suit, the Court, in addition to any proceedings to which any witness not being a party to the suit, would, in such case be subject as aforesaid, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss his complaint, appeal or petition, with costs as against such party, or if such party be a defendant, or respondent, may hear, and decide the case as against such defendant or respondent ex parte. If any such complaint, appeal or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant, or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal or complaint in the same matter.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend, and give evidence, or produce a document, shall be personally delivered; and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons, and any person who, being in Court, shall, upon being required by the Court to give evidence, or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings under Section XXIV. of this Act, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence, or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect, or refusal, or of such absconding, or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in a civil action.

XXVII. If a person, whether a party to a suit or not, for whose attendance either to give evidence or produce a document a summons may be issued, cannot, after diligent search, to be certified by a return, of the razir, be found, the Court upon proof that the evidence of such witness, or the production of the document, is material, and that the witness absconds, or keeps out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, and that he could not, after diligent search, be found or served with the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document at a time and place to be named therein, to be affixed, in the presence, and with the attestation of two respectable householders of the village, outside his house or place of usual abode in some conspicuous place, and if such person shall not attend at the time and place to be named in such proclamation, and it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the witness cannot be found, his property, real and personal, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, (but subject to the same limitation as to the Articles exempt from attachment as in case of attachment for arrears of rent,) shall be liable, under an order of the Court, to attachment and sale. Provided always, that when the order for attachment and sale shall have been issued by any Court subordinate to the Court of Sadler Dewanny Adalat, a summary appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the order of the subordinate Court to the Court to which its orders are generally appealable; and that the Rules for the time being in force in regard to sales made in execution of decrees, as to the mode and period of attachment and the place or manner of sale, and as to claims of third parties to property attached and notified for sale, shall be held applicable to such sales.

XXVIII. The cost of the attachment shall be borne in the first instance by the party applying for it, and the Court issuing the summons and attachment shall not proceed to sale of the property, if the person summoned as a witness shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons. Upon the appearance of such witness, the Court shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If the witness appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to order the property attached to be forfeited and sold or to be released from attachment, upon payment of all costs incurred in consequence of such default or absconding, or keeping out of the way, and of such fine as the Court may deem reasonable, with reference to the circumstances of the case, and the condition in life of the witness, and such fine may be recovered by sale of the property attached, a sufficient portion of which may be retained and sold under the attachment for that purpose, and the residue may be either released or retained to satisfy the party injured such damages as may be recovered against the witness for absconding, or keeping out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, as the Court may think fit to direct: such last-mentioned order shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same period, as an appeal against an order for attachment and sale under the last preceding Section of this Act.

XXIX. All orders as to fines, or the levying thereof, or as to imprisonment under this Act, shall be subject to a similar appeal within one month from the date of the order.

XXX. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness, who may neglect, or refuse to attend, or who may abscond, or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as may appear proper to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case: provided that when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit, to give evidence, or produce any document, the Court shall, at the request of the Defendant or Respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until he can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required, and that where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent, to give evidence, or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

XXXI. On the day appointed for the hearing, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction of the Judge, and shall be recorded in such manner, and according to such forms as shall be from time to time prescribed in that behalf by the Court of Sadder Dewanny Adawlut. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties, or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party, or his vakeel, shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties, or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanour of any witness whilst under examination.

XXXII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a Commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such Commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels, to cross examine, anything in Section V. Act VII. 1841, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. On or before the day appointed for trial, the Court may, for any sufficient reason, such as the unavoidable absence of any material witness, or for other good cause, on the application of either party, postpone the hearing to another day, to be named, on such terms as to the payment of the costs of postponement to the opposite party, as to the Court shall seem reasonable. In such case notice in writing shall be given to each of the witnesses to attend and give evidence, or to produce a document on the substituted day, instead of the day mentioned in their summonses, if there be time to do so and the judge shall so order. The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons. The service of such notice shall have the same effect as if the substituted day had been originally named in such summons as the day for the appearance in Court to give evidence or produce a document, and all the provisions in this Act relating to summonses to give evidence or produce documents, shall extend to such notices in the same manner as if such notices had been expressly mentioned in such provisions. If the application be too late to serve such notices, the Court may order that the examination of any witness who may be present, or shall attend in pursuance of a summons, shall be proceeded with, and that the further hearing of the case, after the examination of such witness, shall alone be postponed.

XXXIV. Unless the hearing be postponed in manner aforesaid, it shall commence on the day appointed, or as soon afterwards as the business which may be pending before the Court and may be entitled to priority will allow, and the recording of evidence on the trial of any suit when begun under the rules above enacted, shall continue on the same day, or on consecutive business days, until the whole of the evidence of the witnesses present shall be heard. The pleaders shall then be heard orally on the merits of the case as regards the issues both of fact and law, and after considering the argument and evidence, the Judge shall record his judgment under Act XII. 1843.

XXXV. If the Court, after the evidence of all the witnesses shall have been heard, and before hearing the pleaders, or recording the judgment, shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to inspect any document, or to examine any party to the suit, or any other person whose evidence may appear to be material, the Court, of its own accord, may cause such party or person to be summoned to attend as witness, to give evidence, or to produce such document, if in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine such party or person as a witness in open Court, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, upon any question which the party or witness may be bound to answer, and the Court may think necessary, and may also compel the production of any document mentioned in such summons, which any such person may have in his possession or power, and be bound to produce. Any witness so called shall be subject to the cross-examination of either party, or his vakeel. If such person, whether a party or not, shall be a female, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as a witness in a Court of Justice, the Court may order such person to be examined in the manner provided by Section XXXII. of this Act, upon such questions as he may direct. The Commissioner or other person authorized to take the examination in such case may put such further questions as in his judgment may be necessary, or may arise out of the answers to be given to the questions directed by the Court.

XXXVI. The Judge, on the application of either party, may cause public notice to be given in Court, either before or during the examination of any witness, requiring all or any other witnesses, whether parties or not, who have been summoned or inserted in the list of witnesses in the same cause, to leave the Court, or to remain out of the same. Any witness in a cause who without lawful excuse shall remain in, or come into Court, contrary to such notice, shall be punishable as for contempt, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the Judge, to any fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or in the case of non-payment to imprisonment in the civil jail, without labor, for any term not exceeding one calendar month. Whenever such notice shall be given, the consequence of disobedience thereto shall be publicly explained at the time of giving the notice. Care shall be taken that any witness who may be examined in the absence of the other witnesses shall not have any communication with such other witnesses prior to their examination.

XXXVII. Any party to a suit, appeal or proceeding who may be examined as a witness therein, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him, in the same manner as if he were not a party.

XXXVIII. The words "Witness" and "Witnesses" in Act VII. 1841, shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" or "parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section at the instance of any opposite party may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of, such last mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also, that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence, unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion, or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that, in the judgment of the Court, it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow, or refuse such deposition to be read.

XXXIX. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding.

XL. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid, shall refer to any document in his possession or power, in any pleading or statement, he shall file such document with the pleading or statement, unless the Court shall, for good and sufficient cause, extend the time for filing the same, and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself, or his agent, to inspect and take a copy of the document before he shall be bound to answer such pleading or statement.

XLI. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company, and shall include any Judge or other officer or person mentioned in Section II. of this Act; the word "Judge" shall be understood to mean the chief judicial authority presiding in any such Court, and shall include any officer, or person having, by law, or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses and to act judicially; the word "Suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal or proceeding mentioned in Section II.; the word "Witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number, shall include the feminine gender or plural number and vice versa.

XLII. This Act shall extend only to Civil proceedings, and to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and shall not include any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 7th day of March next.

The 14th January 1853.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Governor General of India in Council in the Legislative branch of the Home Department, under date the 14th January 1853, is published for general information:

Read a second time the draft of a proposed Act, dated the 2nd July 1852, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 7th July 1852, to amend Act No. VI. of 1852.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council resolves that the following amended draft on the subject be published for general information:

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act to repeal Act No. VI. of 1852, and to make provision for defraying the cost of the Light-House on Pedra Branca, and for maintaining the same, and also a Floating Light established in the Straits of Malacca to the West of Singapore, and for the establishment and maintenance of such further lights in or near to the said Straits as may be deemed expedient.

WHEREAS it was deemed desirable, for the safety and guidance of Ships navigating the China Seas, to build a Light-House on the Island Rock called Pedra Branca, situate at the Eastern entrance of the Straits of Singapore; and whereas certain sums of money were subscribed by private individuals for that purpose, but the same were insufficient to defray the expense of building such Light-House; and whereas the East India Company agreed to build such Light-House, and to advance certain sums of money to complete the same, on condition that the said sum of money should be repaid to them by the levy of certain tolls; and whereas since the passing of Act No. VI. 1852 a floating light has been established by the East India Company in the Straits of Malacca to the West of Singapore, at a place called the 2½ fathom bank, and it may hereafter be deemed expedient to establish and maintain other lights or beacons in or near to the said Straits for the safety and guidance of Ships navigating the same; and whereas many Ships which derive the benefit of the Horsburgh Light and the said floating light established as aforesaid, do not contribute to the expense thereof, and it is just and reasonable that they should be liable so to do; It is enacted as follows:

I. Act No. VI. 1852 is hereby repealed, except so far as it relates to any act already done under the same, or to any toll now due under the provisions thereof, or to any proceedings already adopted or hereafter to be adopted for the recovery of any such toll.

II. The Light-House on Pedra Branca aforesaid, shall continue to be called "The Horsburgh Light-House," and the said Light-House, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging or occupied for the purposes thereof, and all the fixtures, apparatus and furniture, belonging thereto, shall remain the property of, and be absolutely vested in, the East India Company and their successors.

III. The light maintained at the Horsburgh Light-House, and the said floating light established as aforesaid, and such other lights as may be established by the East India Company in lieu of such floating light, or in addition thereto, in or near to the Straits of Malacca or Singapore, shall be called "The Straits Lights."

IV. If, after the passing of this Act, any ship, of the burden of fifty tons or upwards, shall depart from or enter any port, harbour or roadstead in the possession or under the Government of the East India Company, upon, or during or at the termination of any voyage, in the ordinary course of which she would pass any of the said lights, a toll shall be paid in respect of such Ship as follows: that is to say—

If the voyage be one in the ordinary course whereof such Ship would pass the whole of the said lights, one anna for every ton of her burden.

If the voyage be one in the ordinary course of which she would pass any one or more of the said lights, but not all of them, half an anna for every ton of her burden. Provided that such toll shall not be payable at any such port or place if such toll shall have been paid at any other port or place under the Government of the East India Company in respect of the same voyage, and a proper voucher for such payment shall be produced, or other satisfactory proof of such payment given. Provided also that no toll shall be payable on account of any Ship in respect of any voyage for which toll may have been already paid, or become payable under the said Act No. VI. 1852.

V. The return of a Ship from any port or place shall be deemed a distinct voyage within the meaning of this Act, notwithstanding she may have paid the toll abovementioned in respect of her voyage to such port or place, and notwithstanding the terms of any Charter-party.

VI. All Ships of War belonging to Her Majesty, or any Foreign Government or State, and all Ships belonging to the East India Company, shall be exempt from the payment of such toll.

VII. The management and control of the said "Horsburgh Light-House," and of the said Straits Lights, are hereby vested in the Governor of the Straits Settlements.

VIII. The said Governor may appoint any person he may think fit, to be a collector of the tolls payable under this Act, at any port, harbour, or place under his government.

IX. The Funds raised by the tolls payable under this Act shall be applicable in the first place to defray the necessary expenses of maintaining and keeping up the said Light-House and the said Straits Lights, and the establishment and maintenance of such other lights as aforesaid, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit to establish and maintain, and all necessary expenses incidental thereto, and the surplus thereof shall, from time to time, be applied in liquidation of the moneys advanced by the East India Company towards the erection and completion of the said Light-House, and the apparatus and furniture thereof.

X. The toll to be levied under this Act shall become due and payable in respect of Ships clearing out or departing from any port, harbour or roadstead, in the possession or under the Government of the East India Company, upon any such voyage as aforesaid, previously to the granting of any Port-Clearance for such Ship, or, in the event of her not requiring a Port-Clearance, on her preparing to leave such port, harbour or roadstead on such voyage; in respect of any Ship entering any such port, harbour or roadstead as aforesaid, upon any such voyage from any port or place not under the Government of the East India Company, the toll shall be payable immediately upon her entering such port, harbour or roadstead.

XI. The Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at any port, harbour or place in the possession, or under the Government of the East India Company, or any Officer in that behalf whom the Government to which such port, harbour or place is subordinate may appoint to receive the tolls abovementioned, shall collect the same. The Officer to whom any such toll shall be paid shall grant to the person paying the same a proper voucher in writing, under his hand, describing the name of his office, and the port or place at which such payment shall be made, the name, tonnage and other proper description of the Ship, and the voyage in respect of which such toll shall be paid. 17.

XII. No Officer of Customs at any of the said ports, harbours or roadsteads shall receive any entry or report inwards or outwards of any Ship liable to any tolls payable under this Act, in respect of any voyage, until the owner, master or other person having the command of such vessel shall pay such tolls, or shall produce a proper voucher for the payment thereof for the same voyage at some other port, harbour or place.

XIII. The Officer of Government, whose duty it shall be to grant a Port-Clearance for any Ship clearing out of, or leaving any such port, harbour or place under the Government of the East India Company, shall not grant such Port-Clearance to any Ship until the owner, agent, master or other person in command of such Ship shall pay all tolls to which such Ship or Vessel shall be liable under this Act, or produce a proper voucher for, or give satisfactory proof of, the payment of such tolls at some other port or place. If any master or owner, or other person having the charge of any Vessel liable to the payment of any tolls under this Act, shall refuse or neglect to pay the amount thereof to the person authorized to collect or receive the same, such person may distrain any goods or merchandize, to whomsoever the same may belong, on board such Ship, and any tackle, apparel or furniture belonging to such Ship, and may remove the same to some convenient place, leaving notice in writing of such distress, and of the cause thereof, and of the place of removal on board such Ship. If such tolls, together with the costs of such distress and removal, shall not be paid within three whole days after the seizure, exclusive of the day of such seizure, the person authorized to collect such tolls may cause the goods, merchandize, tackle, apparel and furniture so seized, to be appraised and sold, and out of the proceeds of such sale shall pay the amount of the tolls to which such Ship may be liable under this Act, together with the reasonable costs of such seizure, detention, appraisement and sale, rendering to the master or owner, or other person having the command of such Vessel, the overplus, if any, on demand.

XIV. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the person authorized to collect the said tolls at any such port, harbour or place aforesaid, may, in his own name, sue for and recover, on behalf of the East India Company, the amount of any tolls payable to him under this Act, by action of debt in any of the Civil Courts of Her Majesty or of the East India Company against the owner, or master, or other person, who at the time of such toll becoming due shall own or have the command of any Ship liable thereto.

XV. In order to ascertain the burden of any Ship liable to pay toll under this Act, the person authorized to collect such toll may require the owner, master or other person in command of such Ship, or any person having possession of the same, to produce the register of such Ship for the inspection of such person, and upon the refusal or neglect of any such owner, master or other person to produce such register, or otherwise to satisfy the person authorized to collect such tolls as to what is the true burden of the Ship, it shall be lawful for the person authorized to collect such tolls to deliver to such master, owner or other person in command of the Ship, or in the possession thereof, or to leave for him on board such Ship, a notice in writing, specifying what in his judgment is the burden of the Ship, and the burden specified in such notice shall be deemed to be the real burden of the Ship, and be treated as such for all the purposes of this Act, until the owner, master or other person having the command of the Ship shall give sufficient proof of the true burden thereof.

XVI. The Governor General of India in Council may, from time to time, as he may think fit, reduce the tolls payable under this Act, and again raise the same to any amount not exceeding the amounts above specified.

XVII. The word "Ship" throughout this Act shall be held to mean and include a Schooner, Cutter, Brig, Brigantine, Barque, Steam-boat and any square-rigged Vessel.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 14th day of April next.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 22, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 7th January 1853.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Governor General of India in Council, in the Legislative Branch of the Home Department, under date the 7th January 1853, is published for general information:

Read a second time the revised Draft of a proposed Act dated the 27th February 1852, and published in the Supplement to the Calcutta Gazette of the 3rd March 1852, to amend the law of evidence in the Civil Courts of the Bengal Presidency.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council resolved, that the following amended Draft on the subject, be published for general information.

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act to amend the Law of Evidence in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Bengal Presidency.

Whereas the law of evidence administered by the Civil Courts of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and the rules for the attendance and examination of witnesses and the production of documents in such Courts, require amendment, It is enacted as follows:

I. Sections XXXIII. and LXXIII. Regulation XXIII. 1814, of the Bengal Code, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. Section XI., Regulation XXIV. 1814 of the same Code, except so far as it relates to the signing and issuing of any process of Court to which the signature of the judge may not be specially required, and Section I., Act VI. 1843, so far as it authorizes the examination of witnesses according to the rules established by Section XI. Regulation XXIV. 1814, aforesaid, are hereby repealed.

II. In any regular or summary suit, appeal, or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in any summary suit, or other proceeding of a civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or by consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, any party to such suit, appeal or proceeding, shall be competent and entitled to give evidence as a witness either on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other party to the suit, appeal, or proceeding, in the same manner as if he were not a party to the same. Provided that no party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open court, in such manner as the court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Sections XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

III. No person shall, by reason only of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, be incompetent to give evidence in any such suit.

IV. A husband or wife shall not be competent to give evidence for or against the other without the consent of such other. With such consent either of them shall be competent to give evidence for or against the other, provided that the examination shall take place in Court in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, or that it be taken and read under, and subject to the Rules prescribed in Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

V. Any party to any such suit may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner, by the same process, and subject to the same Rules, as if he were not a party to the suit, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act. Provided that no Court need to compel the attendance of any party to such suit, for the purpose of giving evidence therein if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, and shall also undertake, by himself, or his vakeel duly authorized by writing signed by him, to give such undertaking, that he will produce, or cause to be produced to the Court, at such time and place as may be appointed for that purpose, any document which he may previously have been summoned to produce, or shall satisfy the Court that such document is not in his custody, possession or power or under his control, and shall further undertake, if required by the Court so to do, either by himself, or by his vakeel duly authorized by writing signed by him to give such undertaking, that any local agent, manager, or other person who may have acted on his behalf in any matter which may form a subject of inquiry in the suit, shall attend the Court on the trial, and that if such person shall neglect so to do, the party will himself attend. In the event of a breach of any undertaking given under this Section, the party bound by the undertaking shall be liable to such fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees as the Court, Judge or other presiding Officer shall direct, to be levied in manner directed by Section XXIV. of this Act, for the levy of any penalty imposed under that Section, and may also be compelled to attend and give evidence, and to produce such documents in the same manner as any other person. Nothing in this Clause shall exempt any party to a suit from being summoned to produce any document.

VI. After the parties in any suit in which according to the practice of the Court a day is fixed for the hearing shall have filed their exhibits and lists of witnesses, the Court shall, by an order in writing, appoint a day, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof, for the examination of witnesses and the hearing of the suit.

VII. The list of witnesses required to be furnished in any suit shall include the names of all the witnesses, whether parties to the suit or not, whom the party filing the list may intend to call as witnesses or whom he may require to be summoned to give evidence or produce any document, also a list of the documents which he may require to be produced.

VIII. If any party to any suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall make a special application to the Court for an order for the summons or attendance of the party, and shall show good and sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

IX. The Court, upon the application of the Vakeel of any party to a suit whose attendance as a witness may be required, or without such application, if the Court shall think fit so to do, may, before appointing a day for the hearing, fix some day, previous to the day to be appointed for the hearing, for such party to satisfy him that he has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, and also to give such undertaking if required, as is mentioned in Section V. and may also, from time to time if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

X. For the purpose of satisfying the Court that the party to the suit whose evidence may be required has no personal knowledge of any subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein, the Court may receive a declaration in writing of such party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by such party, or his vakeel. Provided that such declaration, in addition to any other statement which it may contain, shall state, to the best of the belief of the party making it, whether any document which he may have been summoned, or had notice to produce is in his custody, possession, or power, or under his control, or was so at the time of the service of such notice, or summons, and, if not, whether such document ever was in his custody, possession, or power, or under his control, and if so when for the last time, and what, to the best of his knowledge and belief, has become of such document; and provided also that such declaration shall also state whether any agent, local manager, or other person acted for such party, or on his behalf in any matter connected with the suit, or forming a subject of inquiry therein, and if so shall state the name of such agent, local manager, or other person, and his place of abode, if known.

XI. If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and upon conviction punished accordingly.

XII. The Court may, on the requisition of any party to any such suit, or his vakeel, cause a summons to be issued to every person who may be required to produce any material document. Previously to issuing any summons for the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document, the party requiring the same shall pay into Court such sum as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of such person in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend, and give evidence, and for one day's attendance thereat. In fixing the sum to be paid into Court, regard shall be had to the rules, if any, established by the Court or Board, if any, to which such Court shall be subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally. In addition to the sum so paid into Court, the Court before whom any person who may attend in pursuance of a summons, or proclamation to give evidence or produce any document, may order such further sum to be paid to the person so attending by the person causing the summons or proclamation to be issued, as may appear to be necessary to defray his travelling and other expenses, and also the expenses of his detention under the summons, or proclamation, and in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, and the witness shall not be bound to give evidence or produce any document until such sum shall be paid.

XIII. Every summons for the attendance of a witness to give evidence, or to produce a document shall set forth at whose request it is issued, and shall require the intended witness to attend at a time and place to be named in the summons, and shall also state whether the attendance of the witness is required for the purpose of giving evidence, or producing a document, or for both purposes. If the witness be a party to the suit and he shall be required to give evidence, the summons shall require him either to appear at a time and place to be named therein to give evidence, or to show good and sufficient cause to the Court issuing the summons, on some previous day, also to be named in the summons, and not being less than a week before the day fixed for the hearing, why such party should not appear to give evidence. If a witness, whether a party to the suit or not, is required to attend, and to produce before the Court any document alleged by the party summoning him to be in his possession or power, a direction to attend the Court with such document shall be inserted in the summons, and the document which the witness may be so called upon to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

XIV. Every such summons shall, if possible, be served personally upon the person thereby required, to attend, by showing the original to such person, and at the same time delivering or tendering to him a copy thereof. Such service must be made a sufficient time before the time specified therein for his attendance to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required, and if the witness be a party to a suit and summoned to give evidence, the summons must be served in time to enable him to show cause at the time and place named therein, why he should not be bound to attend, and give evidence.

XV. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he cause such document to be produced, instead of attending personally to produce the same.

XVI. A party to a suit who may be summoned to give evidence shall be bound to attend as a witness at the time and place to be named for that purpose in the summons, and to remain there until after the trial, or until he shall be dismissed by the Court, unless he shall show good and sufficient cause to the contrary to be allowed by the Court issuing the same at the time to be named for that purpose in the summons, or at any subsequent time to which the time for that purpose may be enlarged by the Court, for good and sufficient cause.

XVII. Any person not a party to the suit who may be summoned to appear and give evidence shall be bound to attend at the time and place named for that purpose, and to remain there until after the trial, or until he shall be dismissed by the Court.

XVIII. Any person attending to produce a document may be called upon to produce the same without being sworn or examined as a witness.

XIX. A witness not being a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned, shall not be bound to produce his own title deeds, unless he shall have agreed so to do, with the party requiring the production thereof.

XX. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

XXI. A witness being a party to the suit shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence, in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

XXII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to produce it, or cause it to be produced to the Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production, or to the

reading, or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof; the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court, and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it, and it shall also be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, and if necessary to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence. If the Court shall be of opinion that such document should not be produced, the Court shall not disclose the contents thereof to the parties, or take any note, or make any mention of the contents or effect thereof in its judgment or proceedings, but shall return the document at once to the party producing the same, having previously marked the same for the purpose of identification, and shall record in its proceedings, that a document, identifying it by the mark put upon it, was called for, naming the person who may call for its production, that the person having the possession of the document, naming him, objected to its production, and the reasons, if any, for such objection, together with the reasons of the Court for refusing to compel its production. If the Court shall refuse to enforce the production of a document, or to receive the same in evidence, the Court of appeal may, upon a regular appeal, compel the production of such document, and if such Court shall think that the production of the same ought to have been enforced, or that it ought to have been received in evidence, may themselves enforce its production, and receive it in evidence, and decide the case upon such document, coupled with the other evidence given in the suit.

XXIII. A barrister, attorney, or valuer, shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he may have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such barrister, attorney, or valuer, of any such matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the barrister, attorney, or valuer would have been bound to disclose, but for the privilege of his client, and the barrister, attorney, or valuer, shall be bound, upon examination, to disclose any such matter.

XXIV. If any witness, whether a party to a suit or not, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document, shall have been personally delivered shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons as required by this Act, or attending, or being present in Court, shall without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court shall have full power and authority to issue an order in writing to the nazar to apprehend and bring the witness before the Court; or, if he be already before the Court, to take him into custody. And such Court may impose on such witness a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for his default or refusal, realizable by attachment and sale of his property, and may commit him to close custody until he shall consent to give his evidence, or to sign his deposition, or to produce the document, and any such fine as aforesaid shall be levied and recovered by attachment and sale of the property of such person. If any such person shall abscond, or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be seized or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the same manner as is provided by Section XXVII. of this Act, with respect to a witness on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected. If such person shall be a party to the suit, the Court, in addition to any proceedings to which any witness not being a party to the suit, would in such case be subject as aforesaid, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss his complaint, appeal or petition, with costs as against such party, or if such party be a defendant or respondent, may hear, and decide the case as against such defendant or respondent ex-parte. If any such complaint, appeal or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant, or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal or complaint in the same matter.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend, and give evidence, or produce a document, shall be personally delivered, and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons, and any person who, being in Court, shall, upon being required by the Court to give evidence, or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings under Section XXIV. of this Act, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence, or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect or refusal, or of such absconding, or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in a civil action.

XXVII. If a person, whether a party to a suit or not, for whose attendance either to give evidence or produce a document a summons may be issued, cannot, after diligent search, to be certified by a return of the mizir, be found, the Court upon proof that the evidence of such witness, or the production of the document, is material, and that the witness absconds, or keeps out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, and that he could not, after diligent search, be found or served with the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document at a time and place to be named therein, to be affixed, in the presence, and with the attestation of two respectable householders of the village, outside his house or place of usual abode in some conspicuous place, and if such person shall not attend at the time and place to be named in such proclamation, and it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the witness cannot be found, his property, real and personal, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, (but subject to the same limitation as to the Articles exempt from attachment as in case of attachment for arrears of rent,) shall be liable, under an order of the Court, to attachment and sale. Provided always, that when the order for attachment and sale shall have been issued by any Court subordinate to the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlat, a summary appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the order of the subordinate Court to the Court to which its orders are generally appealable; and that the Rules for the time being in force in regard to sales made in execution of decrees, as to the mode and period of attachment and the place or manner of sale, and as to claims of third parties to property attached and notified for sale, shall be held applicable to such sales.

XXVIII. The cost of the attachment shall be borne in the first instance by the party applying for it, and the Court issuing the summons and attachment shall not proceed to sale of the property, if the person summoned as a witness shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons. Upon the appearance of such witness, the Court shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If the witness appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to order the property attached to be forfeited and sold or to be released from attachment, upon payment of all costs incurred in consequence of such default or absconding, or keeping out of the way, and of such fine as the Court may deem reasonable, with reference to the circumstances of the case, and the condition in life of the witness, and such fine may be recovered by sale of the property attached, a sufficient portion of which may be retained and sold under the attachment for that purpose, and the residue may be either released or retained to satisfy the party injured such damages as may be recovered against the witness for absconding, or keeping out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, as the Court may think fit to direct: such last-mentioned order shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same period, as an appeal against an order for attachment and sale under the last preceding Section of this Act.

XXIX. All orders as to fines, or the levying thereof, or as to imprisonment under this Act, shall be subject to a similar appeal within one month from the date of the order.

XXX. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness, who may neglect, or refuse to attend, or who may abscond, or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as may appear proper to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case; provided that when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit, to give evidence, or produce any document, the Court shall, at the request of the Defendant or Respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until he can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required, and that where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent, to give evidence, or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

XXXI. On the day appointed for the hearing, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction of the Judge, and shall be recorded in such manner, and according to such forms as shall be from time to time prescribed in that behalf by the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties, or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party, or his vakeel, shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties, or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanor of any witness whilst under examination.

XXXII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a Commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such Commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels, to cross examine, anything in Section V. Act VII. 1841, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. On or before the day appointed for trial, the Court may, for any sufficient reason, such as the unavoidable absence of any material witness, or for other good cause, on the application of either party, postpone the hearing to another day, to be named, on such terms as to the payment of the costs of postponement to the opposite party, as to the Court shall seem reasonable. In such case notice in writing shall be given to each of the witnesses to attend and give evidence, or to produce a document on the substituted day, instead of the day mentioned in their summonses, if there be time to do so and the Judge shall so order. The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons. The service of such notice shall have the same effect as if the substituted day had been originally named in such summons as the day for the appearance in Court to give evidence or produce a document, and all the provisions in this Act relating to summonses to give evidence or produce documents, shall extend to such notices in the same manner as if such notices had been expressly mentioned in such provisions. If the application be too late to serve such notices, the Court may order that the examination of any witness who may be present, or shall attend in pursuance of a summons, shall be proceeded with, and that the further hearing of the case, after the examination of such witness, shall again be postponed.

XXXIV. Unless the hearing be postponed in manner aforesaid, it shall commence on the day appointed, or as soon afterwards as the business which may be pending before the Court and may be entitled to priority will allow, and the recording of evidence on the trial of any suit when begun under the rules above enacted, shall continue on the same day, or on consecutive business days, until the whole of the evidence of the witnesses present shall be heard. The pleaders shall then be heard orally on the merits of the case as regards the issues both of fact and law, and after considering the argument and evidence, the Judge shall record his judgment under Act XII. 1843.

XXXV. If the Court, after the evidence of all the witnesses shall have been heard, and before hearing the pleaders, or recording the judgment, shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to inspect any document, or to examine any party to the suit, or any other person whose evidence may appear to be material, the Court, of its own accord, may cause such party or person to be summoned to attend as witness, to give evidence, or to produce such document, if in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine such party or person as a witness in open Court, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, upon any question which the party or witness may be bound to answer, and the Court may think necessary, and may also compel the production of any document mentioned in such summons, which any such person may have in his possession or power, and be bound to produce. Any witness so called shall be subject to the cross-examination of either party, or his vakeel. If such person, whether a party or not, shall be a female, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as a witness in a Court of Justice, the Court may order such person to be examined in the manner provided by Section XXXII. of this Act, upon such questions as he may direct. The Commissioner or other person authorized to take the examination in such case may put such further questions as in his judgment may be necessary, or may arise out of the answers to be given to the questions directed by the Court.

XXXVI. The Judge, on the application of either party, may cause public notice to be given in Court, either before or during the examination of any witness, requiring all or any other witnesses, whether parties or not, who have been summoned or inserted in the list of witnesses in the same cause, to leave the Court, or to remain out of the same. Any witness in a cause who without lawful excuse shall remain in, or come into Court, contrary to such notice, shall be punishable as for contempt, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the Judge, to any fine not exceeding

two hundred Rupees, or in the case of non-payment to imprisonment in the civil jail, without labor, for any term not exceeding one calendar month. Whenever such notice shall be given, the consequence of disobedience thereto shall be publicly explained at the time of giving the notice. Care shall be taken that any witness who may be examined in the absence of the other witnesses shall not have any communication with such other witnesses prior to their examination.

XXXVII. Any party to a suit, appeal or proceeding who may be examined as a witness therein, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him, in the same manner as if he were not a party.

XXXVIII. The words "Witness" and "Witnesses" in Act VII. 1841, shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" or "parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section at the instance of any opposite party may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of, such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also, that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence, unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion, or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that, in the judgment of the Court, it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last-mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow, or refuse such deposition to be read.

XXXIX. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding.

XL. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid, shall refer to any document in his possession or power, in any pleading or statement, he shall file such document with the pleading or statement, unless the Court shall, for good and sufficient cause, extend the time for filing the same, and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself, or his agent, to inspect and take a copy of the document before he shall be bound to answer such pleading or statement.

XLI. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company, and shall include any Judge or other officer or person mentioned in Section II. of this Act; the word "Judge" shall be understood to mean the chief judicial authority presiding in any such Court, and shall include any officer, or person having, by law, or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses and to act judicially; the word "Suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal or proceeding mentioned in Section II.; the word "Witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number, shall include the feminine gender or plural number and vice versa.

XLII. This Act shall extend only to Civil proceedings, and to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, and shall not include any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 7th day of March next.

J. P. GRANT,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 14th January 1853.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Governor General of India in Council in the Legislative branch of the Home Department, under date the 14th January 1853, is published for general information:

Read a second time the draft of a proposed Act, dated the 2nd July 1852, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 7th July 1852, to amend Act No. VI. of 1852.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council resolves that the following amended draft on the subject be published for general information:

ACT No. — OF 1853.

An Act to repeal Act No. VI of 1852, and to make provision for defraying the cost of the Light-House on Pedra Branca, and for maintaining the same, and also a Floating Light established in the Straits of Malacca to the West of Singapore, and for the establishment and maintenance of such further lights in or near to the said Straits as may be deemed expedient.

WHEREAS it was deemed desirable, for the safety and guidance of Ships navigating the China Seas, to build a Light-House on the Island Rock called Pedra Branca, situate at the Eastern entrance of the Straits of Singapore; and whereas certain sums of money were subscribed by private individuals for that purpose, but the same were insufficient to defray the expense of building such Light-House; and whereas the East India Company agreed to build such Light-House, and to advance certain sums of money to complete the same, on condition that the said sums of money should be repaid to them by the levy of certain tolls; and whereas since the passing of Act No. VI. 1852 a floating light has been established by the East India Company in the Straits of Malacca to the West of Singapore, at a place called the 24 fathom bank, and it may hereafter be deemed expedient to establish and maintain other lights or beacons in or near to the said Straits for the safety and guidance of Ships navigating the same; and whereas many Ships which derive the benefit of the Horsburgh Light and the said floating light established as aforesaid, do not contribute to the expense thereof, and it is just and reasonable that they should be liable so to do; It is enacted as follows:

1. Act No. VI. 1852 is hereby repealed, except so far as it relates to any act already done under the same, or to any toll now due under the provisions thereof, or to any proceedings already adopted or hereafter to be adopted for the recovery of any such toll.

II. The Light-House on Pedra Branca aforesaid, shall continue to be called "The Horsburgh Light-House," and the said Light-House, and the appurtenances thereto belonging or occupied for the purposes thereof, and all the fixtures, apparatus and furniture belonging thereto, shall remain the property of, and be absolutely vested in, the East India Company and their successors.

III. The light maintained at the Horsburgh Light-House, and the said floating light established as aforesaid, and such other lights as may be established by the East India Company in lieu of such floating light, or in addition thereto, in or near to the Straits of Malacca or Singapore, shall be called "The Straits Lights."

IV. If, after the passing of this Act, any ship, of the burden of fifty tons or upwards, shall depart from or enter any port, harbour or roadstead in the possession or under the Government of the East India Company, upon, or during or at the termination of any voyage, in the ordinary course of which she would pass any of the said lights, a toll shall be paid in respect of such Ship as follows: that is to say—

If the voyage be one in the ordinary course whereof such Ship would pass the whole of the said lights, one anna for every ton of her burden.

If the voyage be one in the ordinary course of which she would pass any one or more of the said lights, but not all of them, half an anna for every ton of her burden. Provided that such toll shall not be payable at any such port or place if such toll shall have been paid at any other port or place under the Government of the East India Company in respect of the same voyage, and a proper voucher for such payment shall be produced, or other satisfactory proof of such payment given. Provided also that no toll shall be payable on account of any Ship in respect of any voyage for which toll may have been already paid, or become payable under the said Act No. VI. 1852.

V. The return of a Ship from any port or place shall be deemed a distinct voyage within the meaning of this Act, notwithstanding she may have paid the toll abovementioned in respect of her voyage to such port or place, and notwithstanding the terms of any Charter-party.

VI. All Ships of War belonging to Her Majesty, or any Foreign Government or State, and all Ships belonging to the East India Company, shall be exempt from the payment of such toll.

VII. The management and control of the said "Horsburgh Light-House," and of the said Straits Lights, are hereby vested in the Governor of the Straits Settlements.

VIII. The said Governor may appoint any person he may think fit, to be a collector of the tolls payable under this Act, at any port, harbour, or place under his government.

IX. The Funds raised by the tolls payable under this Act shall be applicable in the first place to defray the necessary expenses of maintaining and keeping up the said Light-House and the said Straits Lights, and the establishment and maintenance of such other lights as aforesaid, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit to establish and maintain, and all necessary expenses incidental thereto, and the surplus thereof shall, from time to time, be applied in liquidation of the moneys advanced by the East India Company towards the erection and completion of the said Light-House, and the apparatus and furniture thereof.

X. The toll to be levied under this Act shall become due and payable in respect of Ships clearing out or departing from any port, harbour or roadstead, in the possession or under the Government of the East India Company, upon any such voyage as aforesaid, previously to the granting of any Port-Clearance for such Ship, or, in the event of her not requiring a Port-Clearance, on her preparing to leave such port, harbour or roadstead on such voyage; in respect of any Ship entering any such port, harbour or roadstead as aforesaid, upon any such voyage from any port or place not under the Government of the East India Company, the toll shall be payable immediately upon her entering such port, harbour or roadstead.

XI. The Collector or other Chief Officer of Customs at any port, harbour or place in the possession, or under the Government of the East India Company, or any Officer in that behalf whom the Government to which such port, harbour or place is subordinate may appoint to receive the tolls abovementioned, shall collect the same. The Officer to whom any such toll shall be paid shall grant to the person paying the same a proper voucher in writing, under his hand, describing the name of his office, and the port or place at which such payment shall be made; the name, tonnage and other proper description of the Ship, and the voyage in respect of which such toll shall be paid.

XII. No Officer of Customs at any of the said ports, harbours or roadsteads shall receive any entry or report inwards or outwards of any Ship liable to any tolls payable under this Act, in respect of any voyage, until the owner, master or other person having the command of such vessel shall pay such tolls, or shall produce a proper voucher for the payment thereof for the same voyage at some other port, harbour or place.

XIII. The Officer of Government, whose duty it shall be to grant a Port-Clearance for any Ship clearing out of, or leaving any such port, harbour or place under the Government of the East India Company, shall not grant such Port-Clearance to any Ship until the owner, agent, master or other person in command of such Ship shall pay all tolls to which such Ship or Vessel shall be liable under this Act, or produce a proper voucher for, or give satisfactory proof of, the payment of such tolls at some other port or place. If any master or owner, or other person having the charge of any Vessel liable to the payment of any tolls under this Act, shall refuse or neglect to pay the amount thereof to the person authorized to collect or receive the same, such person may detain any goods or merchandize, to whomsoever the same may belong, on board such Ship, and any tackle, apparel or furniture belonging to such Ship, and may remove the same to some convenient place, leaving notice in writing of such distress, and of the cause thereof, and of the place of removal on board such Ship. If such tolls, together with the costs of such distress and removal, shall not be paid within three whole days after the seizure, exclusive of the day of such seizure, the person authorized to collect such tolls may cause the goods, merchandize, tackle, apparel and furniture so seized, to be appraised and sold, and out of the proceeds of such sale shall pay the amount of the tolls to which such Ship may be liable under this Act, together with the reasonable costs of such seizure, detention, appraisement and sale, rendering to the master or owner, or other person having the command of such Vessel, the overplus, if any, on demand.

XIV. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the person authorized to collect the said tolls at any such port, harbour or place aforesaid, may, in his own name, sue for and recover, on behalf of the East India Company, the amount of any tolls payable to him under this Act, by action of debt in any of the Civil Courts of Her Majesty or of the East India Company against the owner, or master, or other person, who at the time of such toll becoming due shall own or have the command of any Ship liable thereto.

XV. In order to ascertain the burden of any Ship liable to pay toll under this Act, the person authorized to collect such toll may require the owner, master or other person in command of such Ship, or any person having possession of the same, to produce the register of such Ship for the inspection of such person, and upon the refusal or neglect of any such owner, master or other person to produce such register, or otherwise to satisfy the person authorized to collect such tolls as to what is the true burden of the Ship, it shall be lawful for the person authorized to collect such tolls to deliver to such master, owner or other person in command of the Ship, or in the possession thereof, or to leave for him on board such Ship, a notice in writing, specifying what in his judgment is the burden of the Ship, and the burden specified in such notice shall be deemed to be the real burden of the Ship, and be treated as such for all the purposes of this Act, until the owner, master or other person having the command of the Ship shall give sufficient proof of the true burden thereof.

XVI. The Governor General of India in Council may, from time to time, as he may think fit, reduce the tolls payable under this Act, and again raise the same to any amount not exceeding the amounts above specified.

XVII. The word "Ship" throughout this Act shall be held to mean and include a Schooner, Cutter, Brig, Brigantine, Barque, Steam-boat and any square-rigged Vessel.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 14th day of April next.
